

INITIATIVE 823

I, Sam Reed, Secretary of State of the State of Washington and custodian of its seal, hereby certify that, according to the records on file in my office, the attached copy of Initiative Measure No. 823 to the People is a true and correct copy as it was received by this office.

11. Abolish the Washington State Liquor Control Board.

Any purveyor of Pharmaceuticals or groceries shall be able to sell all of the liquor which has been sold, exclusively, by the Washington State Liquor Control Board Since the end of prohibition in 1933.

We taxpayers don't know who is on the Washington State Liquor Control Board, or how they got on the board. What happened to the billions or, perhaps, even trillions of dollars that were generated by the sale of liquor during the last 70 years?

This initiative will not put more drunk drivers on the road but will undoubtedly liberate millions of dollars which may be of some benefit to all of the Washington Sta

11. Abolish the Washington State Liquor Control Board.

Any purveyor of Pharmaceuticals or groceries shall be able to sell all of the liquor which has been sold, exclusively, by the Washington State Liquor Control Board Since the end of prohibition in 1933.

We taxpayers don't know who is on the Washington State Liquor Control Board, or how they got on the board. What happened to the billions or, perhaps, even trillions of dollars that were generated by the sale of liquor during the last 70 years?

This initiative will not put more drunk drivers on the road but will undoubtedly liberate millions of dollars which may be of some benefit to all of the Washington State taxpayers.